AVOIDANCE STANDARDS

23. A material contract between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers or between the Corporation and another person of which a director or officer of the Corporation is a director or officer or in which he has a material interest is neither void nor voidable by reason only of that relationship or by reason only that a director with an interest in the contract is present at or is counted to determine the presence of a quorum at a meeting of directors that authorized the contract, if the director disclosed his interest in accordance with paragraph 22 and the contract was approved by the directors or the shareholders and it was reasonable and fair to the Corporation at the time it was approved.

No director or officer of the Corporation shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other director or officer or for joining in any receipts or other acts for conformity or for any loss or expense happening to the Corporation through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by the order of the board of directors for or on behalf of the Corporation or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of the Corporation shall be invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person with whom any of the monies, securities or effects of the Corporation shall be deposited, or for any loss occasioned by the error of judgment or oversight on his part or for any loss, damage or misfortune whatever, which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto unless in or as a result of any action, suit or proceeding he is adjudged to be in breach of any duty or responsibility imposed on him under the Act or under any other statute.

INDEMNITY OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

25. The Corporation shall indemnify the directors or officers of the Corporation, former directors or officers of the Corporation or any person who acts or acted at the Corporation's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Corporation is or was a shareholder or creditor and his heirs and legal representatives against all costs, charges and expenses including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment reasonably incurred by him in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he has been made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of such Corporation or body corporate if:
 - (a) he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Corporation; and

- (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he had reasonable grounds for believing that his conduct was lawful.

The Corporation shall also indemnify such directors or officers who have been substantially successful in the defense of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation or body corporate against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by him in respect of such action or proceeding.

INSURANCE FOR DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

- 26. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any director or officer against liabilities, costs, charges and expenses sustained or incurred by such director or officer for failure to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

 - (i) to enable or assist them to purchase or erect living accommodation for their own occupation; or
 - (ii) in accordance with a plan for the purchase of shares of the Corporation or any of its affiliates to be held by a trustee; and
 - (d) in any other case, unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that:
 - (i) the Corporation is or would after giving the financial assistance be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
 - (ii) the realizable value of the Corporation's assets excluding the amount of any financial assistance in the form of a loan and in the form of assets pledged or encumbered to secure a guarantee would, after giving the financial assistance, be less than the aggregate of the Corporation's liabilities and stated capital of all classes.

OFFICERS

28. At the first meeting of the board of directors after the election of directors, the directors shall appoint from among its members, the President. The prior incumbent, if a member of the board of directors, shall continue to hold office until after the election at such meeting and, in default of such election, shall continue to hold office after such meeting. In case the office of President becomes vacant at any time, such vacancy may be filled by the board from among its members. The board of directors shall also appoint a Secretary and may appoint one or more Vice-Presidents, a General Manager, a Treasurer and such other officers as the board of directors may determine including one or more assistants to any of the officers so appointed. The General Manager, if one be appointed, shall have the general management and direction, subject to the authority of the board of directors and the supervision of the President, of the Corporation's business and affairs and the power to appoint and remove any and all officers, employees and agents of the Corporation not elected or appointed directly by the board of directors and to settle the terms of their employment and remuneration. Any of the powers and duties of an officer to whom an assistant has been appointed may be exercised and performed by such assistant, unless the board of directors otherwise directs.
